Background and experience

Please briefly present the partner organization.

Scambieuropei is a Cultural Association dedicated to youth formed by a group of young people specialized in a wide range of fields, including but not limited to: non-formal education, international cooperation, communication & marketing and social work. The mission of Scambieuropei is to provide and promote mobility opportunities for young people in order to help them improve their work and/or educational skills. It undertakes several initiatives to promote and enhance active European citizenship, intercultural communication, social integration, media and journalism.

Scambieuropei also serves as a recruiter and professional mediator, helping match young adults seeking employment with European companies and NGOs, activating EVS and internships throughout Europe. One of our main objectives is to promote the concept of “European citizenship” through the exchange of good practices and multicultural learning. That is why since 2010 we became an accredited EVS sending and coordinating organization.

Furthermore, Scambieuropei works with mobility activities for VET learners as hosting and coordinating organization. In this case, our aim is to provide young people with practical tools and knowledge about EU programs in order to develop their own initiatives.

Our portal www.scambieuropei.info attracts over 800.000 viewers per month, the number of followers on our Facebook page totals well over 100.000, while our newsletter has more than 26.000 monthly subscribers.

In the Summer of 2011, we launched our online magazine dedicated exclusively to European Culture and trends which now serves as an excellent medium for users/ community members on the move to share their exchange experiences.

In 2013 Scambieuropei moved its headquarters to Bologna where it remains at present. (Via Lanzarini,11 Post Code 40127).

Scambieuropei promotes the national “Manifesto dello Stagista” campaign (Intern Manifesto, www.manifestodellostagista.org), launched in 2010 to protest and raise awareness about unpaid internships.

Since 2015 Scambieuropei has been a member of the European Youth Press and supports the No Hate Speech Movement.

What are the activities and experience of the organization in the areas relevant for this application?

Additional information may be supplemented according to project.

Scambieuropei is a Cultural Association dedicated to providing educational opportunities and professional training to youth. We are currently working on several online and offline initiatives to promote and enhance active European citizenship through non-formal education methods, intercultural communication, social integration, media and journalism. One of our main objectives is to promote multiculturalism, exchange of good practises, and an “active European Citizenship” through the implementation of youth engagement programs. To this effect, Scambieuropei also organizes training courses for youth workers and youth exchanges focused on youth empowerment through non-formal education (i.e theatre for the oppressed, dance, music education).

Since 2010, we are an accredited EVS sending, hosting and coordinating organization. We conduct our main administrative and organizational activities at our headquarters in Bologna, Italy, which is open during the week to our volunteers and community members. Our activities include local partnerships, group meetings and training sessions about our international mobility programmes/ EVS. Our legal office is located in Montegranaro, Italy.

What are the skills and expertise of key staff/persons involved in this application?

We foresee the involvement in the project the following the staff persons:

Stefano Campanari

Responsible of the Organization, youth worker, facilitator and expert in European programs and management of youth projects. Graduated in Journalism at University of Rome. After the degree he had several work and volunteering experiences abroad, which lead him to develop the following skills:

- writing and facilitating YiA-Erasmus+ training courses, seminars, conferences and youth exchanges;
- EVS accreditation, design, management, mentorship;
- tutoring VET and interns;
- developing partnership and networking activities with SEE and EECA.

He is the coordinator of the organization with the main focus on EVS projects.

Rosalia Marchese

Project Manager. Graduated in Linguistic Mediation and Italian as a Second Language at the University of Palermo and in Language, Society and Communication at the University of Bologna.

She manages the organization of training courses and youth exchanges as Sending Organization. In particular, she is in charge of the selection process, the organization of the group travel plans and communication with participants and project partners. In addition to that, she also handles administrative tasks regarding the partnership, such as mandates or sending activity costs.

Alessandra Campanari

Editor in Chief, expert in communication and digital tools. Graduated in Modern Philology at Univeristy of Siena, with a postgraduate Diploma in Journalism at London School of Journalism, She is currently a PhD student in Ancient and Modern languages and literatures at University of Macerata Since 2010 Ms. Alessandra works as editor in chief of Scambieuropei website by editing contents, contributing to editorial pieces, motivating and developing editorial staff, ensuring the final draft is complete and there are no omissions.

She heads all the media and communication department of the organization and is held accountable for delegating tasks to staff members, interns and managing them.
