WSCR Information

1. Introduction

El-Wedad Society for Community Rehabilitation (WSCR) is a nonprofit nongovernmental organization. It was established in March, 2001 to provide psychosocial and educational rehabilitation services, in addition to the development of the local community in Gaza Strip. It mainly targets children, women, youth, and elderlies where they receive equal services including training, counseling, guidance, and awareness in psychosocial and educational fields.

WSCR is a registered NGO in the Ministry of Interior, Palestinian Authority Lic No. 7134.

WSCR aims at implementing projects with long-term programs and forward-looking vision seeking the logical institutional development and permanent improvement that distinguish it from other institutions which work merely within a relief context. It works hard to achieve raising in the local community's efficiency, in addition to create positive view among community members in order to reduce the burden of responsibility on governmental organizations.

WSCR built its own head office building recently in Jame'at El Dwal EL Arabya Street, Tal El Hawa, Gaza, Palestine.

WSCR has shown a great interest in making use of community resources in its rehabilitation process. Depending on that, it implements activities that go in line with its policies as well as the Palestinian society's needs. It also contributes positively to the rehabilitation of children, youth, women, elderlies and PWDs.

3. Vision

"We look forward to the advancement of the local community and the reaching of the social balance."

4. Mission

WSCR is working on community rehabilitation and development through providing social, educational, and psychological equal services to several targeted beneficiaries.

5. Goal

Achieving community-based sustainable development through programs that meet the Palestinian society's needs.

6. Objectives

- Enhancing the psychosocial well-being of targeted groups (children, women, youth, and elderly).
- Rehabilitation of youth to act leading and vital role in building up the community.
- Developing and improving the personal and professional skills and capabilities of youth and graduates to meet labor market demands.
- Contributing to enhance children abilities and develop their behaviors and skills.
- Support and enable women to enhance their community participation.
- Enhancing the principles of citizenship and respect, and avoiding the intellectual and political fanaticism.
- Contributing to enhance the principles of democracy and national peace, and human rights for targeted groups.
- Activating the role of Palestinian family in enhancing the humanity values, empowering the concepts of family dialogue and full families, and strengthening marriage relations.
- Investment of experiences and capabilities of elderlies through enhancing their community participation.
- Identification of community needs and problems throughout studies, researches, and questionnaires.
- Enhancing the voluntary participation in the institutional and community work.

"Over 18 years of experience in community work"

7. Capabilities

7.1 Human Resources

“More than 12 full-time employees and hundreds of volunteers are working in WSCR, based on gender equality, efficiency and experience diversity”

7.1.1 Management Approach & tactic:

WSCR currently has a staff of more than 12 full-time employees with a large group of part-time employees and volunteers who are skilled and specialized depending on the projects' needs. Our staff is distinguished for its professional employees with more than 10 years of experience in community work including project managers, financial accountants, social workers and field supervisors.

WSCR's employees have proficient skills in reading, writing and communication in English, in addition to collective knowledge that enables them to solve work-related problems efficiently through team work.

This management structure creates flexibility and freedom within the organization and dynamic atmosphere in which each employee develops a part of thorough teamwork in order to meet the new needs of tasks.

7.1.2 Gender in the WSCR

WSCR services ensure Gender equality. The board of directors includes 3 females. Furthermore, there are 10 females occupies various positions in the association.

“The spirit of creativity and freedom of thinking are the foundation of WSCR’s plan for reaching pioneer position”

7.1.3 Access to Justice and Security in the WSCR

WSCR proceeded its role in promoting the rule of law and providing possible access to justice along with all its community services. Considering that this was not enough to achieve access to justice, WSCR worked on providing new levels of legal services for the community through the implementation of projects with legal nature to achieve that. During the last three years, three related projects were implemented by WSCR and funded by SAWASYA/UNDP. Those projects including Karama project, Mousharaka project, and Nazaha Project) aim at enhancing the rule of law, promoting the role of judicial institutions, and enabling citizens to reach an effective institution for justice.

“Over 3 years of experience in Access to Justice and Security work”

8. Our Donors

“WSCR has a number of cooperating partners to provide services for the society”.

WSCR is interested in cooperation and coordination with local and international institutions in order to achieve its objectives to serve the community. It also concerns about the donors' feedback on the implementation of its projects. It prefers to receive feedback letters to improve the quality of work. The following table consists of WSCR's partners.

9. Our Partners

WSCR formed a strong base of national and international partners, governmental associations, CBOs, networks and local committees in order to increase its base of beneficiaries and supporters to enable it to reach pioneer advancement of the local community and access to the social equality.

The good relationships based on trust with those partners helps reinforcing WSCR capabilities to implement unique projects for all targeted groups and gaining high levels of success by adopting a concept of mutual benefit with its partners.

- Local committees: WSCR has excellent relations with many local committees in Gaza strip. These committees can provide WSCR with information about targeted groups and requirement of these groups according to the project orientation. WSCR is able to enhance its relations with committees through meetings with its members.
- Ministries: WSCR has built great relations with various ministries like Ministry of Social Affairs and Ministry of Health in order to cooperate to reach the neediest people.
- Civil social organization: WSCR cooperates with many SCOs in order to provide the society with the needed projects' services.

10. WSCR's Awards

WSCR achieves high levels of excellence through its journey to pioneer advancement of the local community and access to social equality. Its efforts were appreciated and awarded in more than one area, for example: It was awarded as the best youth institution in 2012 by Ministry of Youth and Sports and it had the best documentary film's award of "Karama Project" in 2013 by UNDP.

11. Financial capability

WSCR is financed according to the fundraising from international organization that its whole staff is loaded into the projects.
