About CPDIS

Asociația CPDIS is a non-profit organization founded in the fall of 2012 with the aim of promoting understanding and cooperation between people. Pursuing this aim, we encourage and promote all those initiatives that, in terms of solidarity and on the cultural-educational field, allow the interchange of ideas among different cultures, favours the easing of economic imbalances and promote the creation of a true culture of universality and peace. Among these actions, there is a reflection on consumerism, interculture and peace with non-formal education methodologies. Our goals are to involve young people into youth people on local, national and international levels, to support youth in creating and implementing their own small-scale community-based projects. CPDIS members had participated in many youth projects in local, national and international level, together with partners our coordinators had implemented youth exchanges and youth trainings.

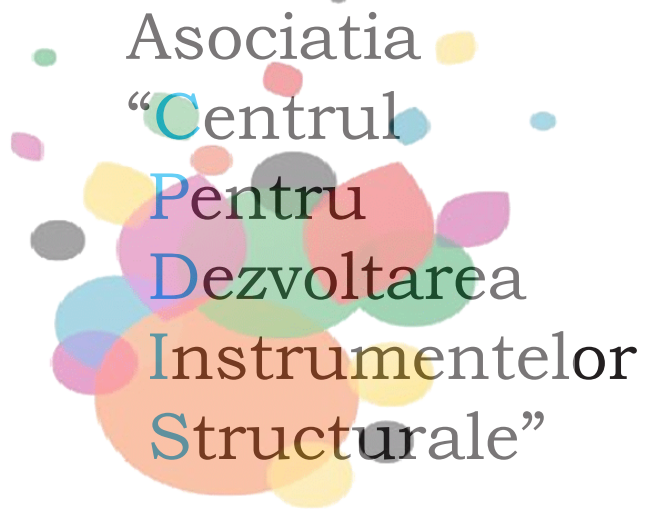

Our project team has skills, expertise and experiences in:

- Networking for youth education activities,
- Promoting of youths at entrepreneurship,
- Sharing experiences,
- Creating educational materials together,
- Promoting a good communication between project partners and related organisations,
- Disseminating the results very actively

Target group

The participants are young people aged 18-30 coming from various social backgrounds. Some are still in education (high-school or university), some are employed or self-employed (freelancers, entrepreneurs). A great deal of attention will be given to young people with fewer opportunities, like NEET category (not in education, employment or training) and they will form up to 50% of the group.

Some of our projects

The goal of the UpDatE + CV project was to stimulate young people in a proactive way of living by involving the local community in social life to increase their chances of joining the workforce.

14.01.2019 - 23.01.2019 Horezu, ROMANIA

The goal of #H(E+)lp was to develop key competences for 33 young workers to provide first aid measures and interventions in case of emergency, to develop their first aid skills and teach basic techniques to young people in NGOs and to learn how to prepare and act in the event of a natural disaster.

The goal of #BEST was to provide information on business opportunities and funding at local, national and international for the 35 young people, to encourage entrepreneurship among young people; to introduce them to the "Business Model Canvas" on the ideas they developed; to create 7 business plans for social entrepreneurship based on the ideas of the participants plans that are underway.

eNEET Rural will focus on innovation and technology in the agricultural sector in order to create a Toolkit for young people, who are no longer in the education system, not working or being trained for work (NEETs). The Toolkit will include online and on-the-spot trainings, youth competition, staff exchange and mentoring services.

From our participants....

What did we learn in this project?

“ The organisers were very well informed about the topic. The buildup of the youth exchange was excellent. I learned a lot about the differences of business making in different European countries. We had to work within mixed groups for several days on different business ideas. I got to know my teammates well and got to know different nationalities well. ”

“ During this project, I learn the basics of entrepreneurship and the basics of economic theory. I learn the situations of the other countries and the positive practices of how to support young people develop their own business. ”

“ I learned that I discovered Erasmus+ projects way too late. Also, I learned how amazing it is to work in multicultural environment. ”

“ How to perform CPR and Heimlich Manouver. Also, I've greatly improved my communication skills and knowledge of other European cultures. ”

What did you like the most in this project?

“ The organisational side. Everything was very punctual starting from the first day. The project was packed with lots of new information. ”

“ It's not only one thing that I like during this project. What really made me happy is the place I was, it was small town but had everything I needed. I liked the people around me, I spoke with everyone and made friends, with which I still keep in touch. And the last thing is the new knowledge I learned and the practice of my english. I would love to go on another project in the future to experience the same friendly vibes and make more international friends! ”
